

AUDUBON OF THE WESTERN EVERGLADES

EVENING SPEAKER SERIES 2018-2019

Our Programs are presented monthly from November through April at 7:00 pm at the Naples Botanical Garden, at FGCU's Kapnick Education Center building, 4820 Bayshore Drive, Naples (Off US41 take Bayshore Drive South, 1.5 miles down to stop sign at Thomasson, go straight you will see garden on right.) REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED FOR ALL PROGRAMS. Audubon of the Western Everglades (AWE) members, non-members, and guests are welcome. There will be a $10.00 charge for non-members, and donations are graciously accepted.

Tuesday, November 13, 2018

The Lake O—Algae Connection

Speaker: John Cassani, The Calusa Waterkeeper
ANNUAL MEETING

Tuesday, December 11, 2018

Invasive Pythons in Southwest Florida

Speaker: Kodiak Hengstebeck, UF Graduate Student and Biologist

Tuesday, January 8, 2019

The Eyes Have It: Adaptations of Bird Eyes

Speaker: Dr. Jerry Jackson, Professor Emeritus, FGCU

Tuesday, February 12, 2019

Burrowing Owl Class of 2018 : The Nesting Results on Marco

Speaker: Alli Smith, UF Master Student & Research Biologist

Tuesday, March 12, 2019

The Big Catch: Naples History with Emphasis on its Fishing Past

Speaker: Todd Turrell, Founding Partner of Turrell Hall & Associates

Tuesday, April 9, 2019

Red Tide: Making Waves in SW Florida

Speaker: Dr. E. Brian Lapointe, PhD, Research Professor, FAU

Each Program will also feature a "Bite" about the Environment, Birds, or Places to visit right here in our own back yard along with Critter Corner. It's a new and exciting season so come join the fun!

Visit us online at www.audubonwe.org

Mailing Address: PO Box 1738~ Naples~ FL~34106 (239)643~7822

Physical Address: 1048 Goodlette Rd. N., Ste. 201~Naples~FL~34102

Programs Sponsored by:

